

Academic-Professional Security Series

Hosted by:

UGA Office of Security and Emergency Preparedness
UGA Center for International Trade and Security

The Economic Downturn: Rising Crime, Scams and Fraud

Tuesday, April 28, 2009
11:00 am – 12:30 pm
UGA Tate Center, Room 137
(Open to the public and no registration required)

Speakers:

- David Griffith, Athens-Clarke County Police Department crime analyst, will discuss trends in the Athens area
- Mark Cooney, UGA Sociology professor, will add analysis on how to compare with normal theories of crime with an emphasis on what is affected by the economy
- James Noonan, FBI statistician, will discuss research on school violence and crime as well as robbery statistics and health care fraud.

Contact: John Newton jmnewton@uga.edu or (706) 542-5845

The University of Georgia Office of Security and Emergency Preparedness
Phone (706) 542-5845 | Fax (706) 542-4664 | Email: osep@uga.edu

Web site: www.osep.uga.edu